

The Patrick S.G. Bain, BHEA, BHA and BHC&AWU Hotel Industry Partners Scholarship Fund

Background

The Bahamas Hotel Association, the Bahamas Hotel Employers Association and the Bahamas Hotel Catering and Allied Workers Union are offering a minimum of six annual jointly sponsored scholarships to encourage advanced studies in hospitality and culinary-related areas at the College of The Bahamas. This is in addition to the efforts already underway by the respective organizations.

These scholarships are being offered in the name of the respective organizations and in tribute to the late union leader Pat Bain, in recognition of his commitment to education and building business-labour partnerships.

The partnership organizations pledge an annual contribution of up to $15,000 in support of up to six annual scholarships.

A description of the scholarship and eligibility criteria follows.

Scholarship Description

A one year scholarship not to exceed $4,000 per student is being offered toward the tuition of a Bahamian student or employee enrolling in the College of The Bahamas Culinary and Hospitality Management Institute. The scholarship will apply towards, tuition, fees and lab charges related to courses of study at The College of The Bahamas in the Culinary and Hospitality Management Institute. This would not extend to books, school store charges or any accommodation-related expenses. The scholarship may be renewable based upon the recipient's ability to meet established renewal criteria. Among the scholarships awarded, consideration will be given to awarding scholarships to qualified high school graduates, industry employees, and individuals recently employed in the industry.
