

Corporate Strategies for Leadership and Talent Development Forum

Thursday, December 5, 2013
8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
British Colonial Hilton
Nassau, Bahamas

A national initiative convened by the Bahamas Hotel & Tourism Association in collaboration with public and private sector stakeholders

REGISTRATION FORM

Why Attend....

- Businesses and Government currently face great difficulty with finding, developing and retaining capable managers and leaders
- Many employers want to initiate or improve succession planning and leadership development strategies
- Successful companies and countries have strategies to develop top talent
- Current management and leadership voids will be compounded shortly when major developments, including Baha Mar, and those on Bimini, San Salvador and Grand Bahama embark upon massive recruitment campaigns....needing to fill hundreds of management positions
- Many employers will lose some top talent over the next 12 months and must be prepared for it

Who Should Attend....

- CEO's, Managing Directors, Human Resource Heads, Senior Corporate and Government Managers
- Banks, hotels, insurance companies, accounting firms, government, education institutions, retailers, wholesalers....most sectors of our economy

Forum Outcomes:

- Heighten understanding about management and leadership challenges facing most business and government organizations
- Learn about successful corporate and government strategies to address leadership voids and succession planning
- Identify strategies and action steps which can be put in place now at a company level as well as nationally
- Agree to a collaborative public-private sector approach toward top talent development
