Further to the Nassau Guardian Report dated Tuesday, April 21st, 2020, “Baha Mar is expected to distribute 5,000 packages to its employees between 9am and 4pm at the Melia Convention Center.

“Our employees are our greatest asset and at the core of everything that we do. We appreciate how challenging these times are for everyone and wanted to let them know that they are in our thoughts” said Baha Mar President, Graeme Davis.

“The collection schedules for the packages has Grand Hyatt employees receiving packages; Casino, Share Services and Resort Services on Wednesday; Melia employees on Thursday; and SLS and Rosewood staff on Friday.

All associates are asked to drive up, bring their Baha Mar identification for verification and wear masks”.
